Mission to fight poverty

Catholic communities all over the world are looking for teachers, health and community development workers, administrators and others to mentor workers in their fields of expertise. See more than 40 volunteer positions at www.palms.org.au/projects/.

The positions would suit anybody with the appropriate qualifications. Healthy retired people find it a most gratifying and stimulating mission. Australian donors cover your costs and outstanding support is provided through the church's single biggest global volunteer mission agency.

Australian Catholic Youth Festival – Invitation to Mass in the Domain

Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP has invited all to attend Mass in the Domain on Saturday 9 December for the Australian Catholic Youth Festival. To allow all to attend, the Archbishop has cancelled vigil Masses in the Archdiocese on that day. The Mass at 6.30pm will follow an afternoon of concerts and festivities beginning at 4pm and featuring Australian and international musicians and performers, including Matt Maher. The Archbishop also invites the people of Sydney to pray for the success this important event. Prayer cards have been distributed to parishes (see attached).

A special App is available with information about the Festival. Please download it for FREE here: www.xt3.com/acyf2017/apps/

The Epiphany Pilgrimage

Are you looking for a different way to start the new year? Maybe to meet some new people, get fit and conclude the Christmas season on a spiritual high? The Epiphany Pilgrimage is a 7 day, 110 km Catholic pilgrimage through the Blue Mountains which coincides with the Feast of the Epiphany in early January. The pilgrimage begins at Our Lady of the Way Parish in Emu Plains on January 2 2018 and finishes at the Chapel of the Magi at the top of the mountains in Bell on January 8 2018. Throughout the journey pilgrims walk through the beautiful Blue Mountains bushland and engage in daily Mass and Adoration at each of the six parishes along the route. For further info & registration go to www.epiphanypilgrimage.org or see <https://www.facebook.com/epiphanypilgrimage/>

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe - A - 26 November 2017

Precious Life

Our life has been entrusted to us by God. We serve God, and love ourselves rightly, when we are good stewards of the life we have been entrusted, striving to keep ourselves healthy and directing everything to our spiritual well-being. From our Baptism we have been able to look forward to fullness of life as “the child of God, for so indeed we are”. We strive through love of God and one another, to become perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect. The meaning of our life, therefore, is not defined by this world only. We are citizens of God’s kingdom and, with all our brothers and sisters, the life which we are stewarding profits us to eternal life.

To destroy that life, or the life of another, knowingly, freely and deliberately, is a serious sin. It is murder. The innocent sounding names that people may use to describe what they are doing, like “assisted dying”, do not change the reality. To assist someone is to alleviate their suffering while appreciating their life to the end. We should visit, comfort, encourage, not kill.

Jesus taught us to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, visit the sick and imprisoned. This has a physical and spiritual meaning, and easily applies especially to those whom the world would too readily “let go” and “assist to die”. God forgive us. The Christian works of mercy outline for us some of the fundamental support we should be providing our chronically suffering or dying brothers and sisters; food, water, warmth, shelter, company, and aid in their sickness. Saint Pope John Paul II acknowledged limits to medical care. Medical intervention ought not be overzealous, and the sick person themselves may reject extraordinary efforts. However, in a place like Australia, the Christian works of mercy, and the provision of air and basic medicine should be considered ordinary care and always provided.

God bless,
Father Michael.

This weeks readings - Ezek 34:11-12,15-17; 1Corinth 15:20-26,28; Gospel - Matthew 25:31-46.

New Parish Priest

It is with great pleasure we announce that the Archbishop has appointed Fr Van Nguyen as our new Parish Priest. Fr Van is known by many of you and comes from Campsie Parish. He will commence here at St Felix on Tuesday 12th December. We thank Fr Michael Lanzon for administering at the Parish for the month of November.

1st Reconciliation

The Sacrament of 1st Reconciliation will be celebrated this Wednesday 29th at 7.00pm. Please keep these children in your prayers. We would like to thank all the teachers, class leaders and our Sacramental co-ordinator, Gloria Booby for all the work and preparation given to these children over the last few weeks.

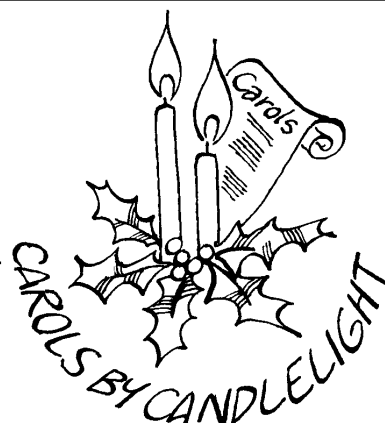

Carols by candlelight - Wednesday 13th December

The St Felix Youth and Young Adults group invite you, your family and friends, to a night of prayerful carols and meditation as we prepare the way for Jesus’ coming at Christmas on Wednesday 13th December 2017.

Carols and meditation will commence in the church at 7pm and conclude at 8pm with a community BBQ near the grotto.

Feasts of the week

30 November – St Andrew, apostle. Feast.

Born at Bethsaida (Galilee). A fisherman and perhaps a disciple of John the Baptist (24 June). Introduced his brother, Simon Peter (29 June), to Jesus and became one of the first to follow Christ. Mentioned a number of times in the gospels, for example, in introducing some Gentiles to Jesus (John 12:20ff.). Widely venerated since ancient times and remembered as one of the twelve who bore witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.
